MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. L. Randolph Elges
Deputy Operations Director
Department of State

ATTENTION: Mr. Francis B. Stevens

SUBJECT: General Veron Farkas

1. Pursuant to our recent telephone conversation concerning General Veron Farkas, head of the Hungarian post-war military organization in Germany called the Hungarian Freedom Movement, we have been informed by the fact that he is presently in Canada in connection with the Bay of Pigs operation.

2. Major Bela Karp, President of the Hungarian National Council, is concerned lest he take this opportunity to enter the United States. The Directorate is of the opinion, which is shared by the responsible officials of the Fund, that Farkas' presence in this country would be most undesirable and could only cause trouble.
